A Day in the Life of a Camper

“Time to wake up!” is what all of the campers hear every morning from the Program Cabin as they roll out of bed. The table setters on duty walk to the mess hall. Fifteen minutes later the rest of the campers hit the mess hall for breakfast. After breakfast, the campers clean their cabin before heading to their activities (see Sydni’s article). Then, after first and second period activities the campers head back to their cabins for lunch. Later, the table setters and O.D.s head to the mess hall to get ready for lunch. Then, fifteen minutes later all of the campers go to lunch. After lunch the campers get Canteen. Canteen is where the campers get a snack after lunch, and then it is rest hour. Rest hour is a time for campers to relax and get ready for 3rd, 4th and 5th period activities. And then the music plays, and the campers head to their 3rd period activity (see Sydni's article) then after that its time for their 4th period activity (see Sydni's article) and after their 4th period activity it is time for their 5th period activity (see Sydni's article) then the table setters and the O.D.s head to the mess hall for the final meal of the day. A little while later the campers head up to the mess hall for dinner. After dinner there is a fun evening pro-gram, such as cabin night, the Hallo-ween dance and PANIC! There, you wanted it, you got it, a day in the life of a camper!

Sports

These are the activities that you can do that are sports: basketball, volleyball, football, horseback riding, swimming, baseball, tennis, gymnastics, archery and golf. In all these activities you can practice the skills you already have and learn new skills!

Arts

In these activities you get to show your creativity. Jewelry, ceramics, set design, fine arts, painting, and arts and crafts. With set design there's always a play because they create the sets. Those are all of the great art classes offered here!

Water activities

Some campers like being in the water. Some of the water activities the camp offers are the following: water skiing, swimming, canoeing, knee boarding, sailing; wake boarding and Jr. life saving. These are some of the best activities on a HOT day!

Other

In the category "other", there are a lot of fun activities like climbing, animal care, riflery and out door living skills, also known as (OLS). There's also free choice where campers get to choose what they want to do. There's an activity of the week like go carting or arts and crafts. If campers don't want to do the activity of the week they can write letter, take a nap or play tetherball with a friend during free choice.
